Rebecca Hatton, PsyD.

Member of the first group of Americans being trained in (psychodynamically informed) Finnish Open Dialogue, which has reduced the prevalence of DSM 'schizophrenia' by 80% since its implementation in W. Lapland, Finland in the 1990s. We are being taught by Jaakko Seikkula, PhD, who consulted with Bert Karon in the course of developing Open Dialogue.

Completed training in June, 2011 with Gail Hornstein, PhD & Jacqui Dillon, National Coordinator of Hearing Voices Network--Great Britain, on how to start HVN groups. Michigan now has three meetings of Hearing Voices Network, including an Ann Arbor chapter. These are the only meetings of this 25 year old self-run recovery & support network in the Midwest. I've led 8 day-long workshops in the past year, with six more planned, teaching about psychosis recovery & treatment innovations.
